

October 21, 2020

To the Members of the Association of
Canadian Association of Sign Language Interpreters:

At the request of the Board of Directors, the auditor has revised that part of the financial statements pertaining to expenditures in order to further stratify certain projects undertaken by the Organization and to provide additional clarity of the year's operating results. The following excerpts indicate the changes requested which did not affect the year-end statement of financial position or net operating results for the year:

Revised

Programs and Projects

Conference	$ 1,195	$ 169,912
CES program	$ 1,767	$ 8,354
CES project	-	$ 4,077
PCRP program	-	$ 990
PCRP project	$ 6,833	-
Other projects*	$ 66,727	$ 20,165
	<hr/>	<hr/>
	$ 76,522	$ 203,498

As originally stated:

Programs and Projects

Conference	$ 1,195	$ 169,912
CES program	$ 1,767	$ 8,354
CES project	-	$ 4,077
PCRP project	-	$ 990
PCRP program	$ 73, 560	$ 20,165
	<hr/> <hr/>	<hr/> <hr/>
	$ 76,522	$ 203,498

Please note that amounts have not changed, thus no change to the Organization's operating costs or financial position. Upon review, the clarity of categorization has been validated by the auditor.

"Other projects" includes the website, Deaf Interpreter Task Force, and Legal Position Paper review all of which were discussed at the CASLI 2019 AGM. Thank you for your attention to this update. The edited package will be available on the CASLI AGM website.